Six Men Meet Death in a Snowslide at the Mining Camp of Alta.

Awful Avalanche Came Down Upon the Men as They Were Sleeping. Sweeping Away the Houses and Burying the Victims Beneath Twenty-five Feet of Snow.

Sandy, Utah,-After many hours of frantic toll on the part of a large band of Alta miners, the bodies of the six victims who suffered death in the awful snowslide at the camp Saturday morning were uncovered and Sunday afternoon brought to Sandy, where they lie in the city ball awaiting funeral arrangements by friends and relatives. Following are the names, ages and, so far as has been ascertained, the places of residences of the Gray, John, aged 55; stranger from California. Murphy, Jerry, aged 45, miner, Park City. Powell. William, aged 18, Sandy, boarding house keeper.

Powell was in charge of the boarding house conducted in the camp by Mrs. John Matson of Sandy, his mother. Gray was a miner employed by the Columbus Consolidated Mining company. The remaining victims were strangers who had come to the camp seeking work.

In the dead of night, while all the victims were asleep, the avalanche rushed down the mountain side without a moment's warning, sweeping round bout in a place known as away the boarding house referred to George McFadden's club, in New York and the salocn of Ross Ormburst, the adjoining building. Gray and Murphy were sleeping in the saloon; the other victims were in their bunks at the boarding house.

Thackeray's Sense of Justice.

Thackeray once wrote in a note to a friend, alluding to an incident occasioned by one of his articles in Punch: "I thought over the confounded matter in the railroad and wrote instantly on arriving here a letter of contrition and apology to Harry Tayfor for having made what I see now was a flippant and offensive allusion to Mrs. Taylor. I am glad I have done it. I am glad that so many people whom I have been thinking bigoted and unfair and unjust toward me bave been right and that I have been wrong, and my mind is an immense deal easier.'

TAR AND FEATHERS LONG AGO.

Ordered by Richard Coeur de Lion as Punishment for Theft. We learn from the annals of the hisain to Henry III, that the old custom of tarring and feathering is one that dates back to the time of Richard the

He tells us that this renowned king. on setting out for the third crusade, made this enactment among others, for his fleet:

A robber who shall be convicted of theft shall have his head cropped after the fashion of a champion, and boiling pitch shall be poured thereon, and the feathers of a cushion shall be shaken out on him, so that he may be known, and at the first land at which the ship shall touch he shall be set on shore.

This, then, is one of several customs which has been classed commonly as "American," while in truth, it originated with us, and was imported by them from Europe.-Tit Bits. London.

THE LITTLE WIDOW.

A Mighty Good Sort of Neighbor to Have.

"A little widow, a neighbor of mine persuaded me to try Grape-Nuts when my stomach was so weak that it would not retain food of any other kind," writes a grateful woman, from San Bernardino Co., Cal.

"I had been ill and confined to my bed with fever and dervous prostration for three long months after the birth of my second boy. We were in despair until the little widow's advice brought relief.

"I liked Grape-Nuts food from the beginning, and in an incredibly short time it gave me such strength that I was able to leave my bed and enjoy my three good meals a day. In two months my weight increased from 95 to 113 pounds, my nerves had steadied down and I felt ready for anything. My neighbors were amazed to see me gain so rapidly and still more so when they heard that Grape-Nuts alone had brought the change.

"My 4-year-old boy had sezema very bad, last spring and lost his appetite entirely, which made him cross and peevish. I put him on a diet of Grape-Nuts, which he relished at once, He improved from the beginning, the eczema disappeared and now he is fat and rosy, with a delightfully soft. clear skin. The Grape-Nuts diet did it. I will willingly answer all inquiries." Name given by Postum Co.,

WILD PANIC IN CHURCH CAUSED BY CRY OF FIRE

Eighteen Colored People Killed and Nearly Two Score Injured In Stampede From Bullding,

Philadelphia -- A wild panic following a loud shrick of "fire," brought death to eighteen colored persons and injuries to nearly two score of others Sunday night in St. Paul's Baptist church on the west side of Eighth street between Poplar street and Girard avenue. The terrible rush to gain the street was of brief duration, and that more were not killed in the stampede probably was due to the fact that the church was not crowded. At the time the disaster occurred not more than 300 persons were on the second floor of the building, which, with the gallery, was capable of accommodating 600 to 700.

The fire was a trifling one and was extinguished before the firemen arrived. The smell of smoke added to the panic and despite the heroic work of the Rev. Johnson, pastor of the shurch, who tried in vain to allay the 'ears of the frightened worshippers. the terror-stricken people made a feeperate rush to leave the church only to be choked up on the narrow stairway. Those in the rear leaped over the prostrate forms of those who fell, and when the rush was over eighteen lay dead on the first floor and stairs of the building. Death m nearly every case was due to suffocation or trampling.

FOREIGN CROP REPORT.

No Definite News Regarding Russian Winter Cereals.

Washington.-The foreign crop report for December shows that over large areas of Europe the prevailing characteristics were unseasonably warm weather and excessively humidity. Crops lightly sown have germinated finely and entered on the winter in strong, healthy condition. Late sowing of crops in Europe, however, was unusually extensive, and some anxiety is felt concerning them. In Great Britain the winter wheat area has been extended. The acreage, however, is still believed to be diminished as compared with last year. In France the wheat area is the average. In Germany weather conditions were unfavorable and there was no marked improvement. In Roumania the area under wheat is about 15 per cent short of last year. No important definite news regarding the condition of winter sown cereals in Russia is reaching the outside world.

The girl alleged that Horton struck her during a quarrel, and she had him ar-

SPEAKING "UNDER THE ROSE."

Varying Versions of Origin of Famous Phrase.

The phrase "under the rose" had its origin in the wars between the English houses of Lancaster and York. The parties respectively swore by the red or the white rose, and these opposite emblems were displayed as signs of two taverns, one of which was by the side of and the other opposite to the Parliament House, in old Palace Yard, Westminster. Here the retainers and servants of the noble men attached to the Duke of York and Henry VI used to meet. Here also, as disturbances were frequent, measures, either of defense or annoyance, were taken, and every transaction was said to be done "under the rose;" by which expression the most profound secrecy was implied. According to others, the term originated in the fable of Cupid giving the rose to Harpocrates, the god of silence, as a bribe to prevent him betraying the amours of Venus, and was hence adopted as the emblem of silence. The rose was for this reason frequently sculptured on the ceilings of drinking and feasting rooms, as a warning to the guests that what was said in moments of conviviality should not be repeated; from which, what was intended to be kept secret was sald to me "under the rose." Roses were consecrated as presents from the Pope. In 1526 they were placed over confessionals as the symbols of silence. Hence, according to some, the origin of the phrase.

Butler is Thoughtful.

An English butler who committed suicide left for his employer a note in which he said: "I should have gone to a better world last night only this being your 'at home' day, thought I would wait until to-night I hope you will find everything all right in the pantry."

PAIN IN THE JOINTS

Rheumatic Tortures Cease When Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Make New Blood.

The first sign of rheumatism is frequently a pain and swelling in one of the joints. If not combated in the blood, which is the seat of the disease. the poison spreads, affecting other joints and tissues. Sometimes rheumatism attacks the heart and is quickly fatal.

The one remedy that has cured rheumatism so that it stays cured is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These pills expel the poison from the blood and restore the system, so that the poisonous matter s passed off as nature intended.

Mrs. I. T. Pitcher, of No. 130 Monmonth street, Newark, N. J., suffered for about three years from rheumatism before she found this cure. She says: It began with a queer feeling in my fingers. In a little time it seemed as though the finger joints had lumps on them and I could not get my gloves on.

"Then it grew worse and spread to my knees. I could not stand up and I could not sleep nights. My suffering was more than I can describe. I took a great deal of medicine, but nothing even gave me rehef until I tried Dr. Williams'
